

The Canadian Field-Naturalist

The Canadian Field-Naturalist* welcomes our new Book Review Editor

Starting with Issue 136, Volume 1, The Canadian Field-Naturalist will have a new Book Review Editor, Jessica Sims (bookrevieweditor@canadianfieldnaturalist.ca). While we transition from the interim editors (Amanda Martin and William Halliday), readers of this journal are invited to request titles they are willing to review from the list from Jessica and, if still available, copies will be sent directly to them by the publisher. Readers will still be able to submit reviews of books they have on hand, provided that reviewed books have a Canadian connection, including those on any species (native or non-native) that inhabits Canada, as well as books covering topics of global relevance, including climate change, biodiversity, species extinction, habitat loss, evolution, and field research experiences. Book reviews will be submitted through the online submission system <https://www.canadianfieldnaturalist.ca/index.php/cfn/about/submissions>. All received reviews will undergo editing, and prospective reviewers are encouraged to check our book review guidelines at <https://www.canadianfieldnaturalist.ca/index.php/cfn/about/submissions>.

Book Reviews

Book Review Editor's Note: The Canadian Field-Naturalist is a peer-reviewed scientific journal publishing papers on ecology, behaviour, taxonomy, conservation, and other topics relevant to Canadian natural history. In line with this mandate, we review books with a Canadian connection, including those on any species (native or non-native) that inhabits Canada, as well as books covering topics of global relevance, including climate change, biodiversity, species extinction, habitat loss, evolution, and field research experiences.
